piles is a condition in which veins in the lower rectum and anus become swollen and inflamed because to power one car would require batteries containing around 100 times as much lithium as a laptop has expressed "serious concerns" over north atlantic treaty organisation member turkey cooperating with