Activities are designed to develop adaptive skills in order.

I was 58 years old and feeling generally unwell; being overweight and sub-thyroid (which included mild depression and an inability to lose weight)

I have had slight diarrhoea but nothing major, also headaches which usually fade with paracetamol

It has been about 10 days now and I am beginning to worry if things will ever get back to normal